

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. ## PREFACE.

In preparing a Dictionary like the present one, destined for general use, the compiler cannot lay claim to any originality; accuracy and completeness are the only qualities he should attempt to realize, and the constant endeavour to keep equally distant from exaggerated concision and over-abundance of details. There is one point, however, to which I would venture to call the attention of the reader, namely, the etymologies in the French-English part. They form a distinctive feature in my volume, and are given on the authority of Messrs. Littré, Schéler, and Brachet. The list of diverging derivations, together with the chronological, historical, and literary tables, will, I trust, be likewise found useful; and I shall be proud indeed if the Dictionary I now offer to the public is deemed worthy of the kind reception which my previous works have met with.

GUSTAVE MASSON.

I. LANGUE D'OC.

The Langue d'Oc or Provençale literature was the first to flourish, and for a short time it shone with extraordinary splendour. The southern Troubadours during the eleventh and twelfth centuries were the poets of civilized society. They chiefly wrote lyrics, and their compositions may be classed under the following heads: —

- 1. Vers, including pieces of various styles generally divided into stanzas.
- 2. Chansons, amatory poems always divided into stanzas.
- 3. Complaintes (plank), elegiac compositions usually written in lines of ten or twelve syllables.
- 4. Tensons, or jeux partis, poetical discussions or debates on certain points of war or of love. The tenson (contention) is made up of an even number of stanzas followed by two envois. When there are more than two interlocutors, the piece is called a torneyamen.
- 5. Strventes, satirical compositions also divided into stanzas.
- 6. Pastorelles, eclogues introducing two or more characters.
- 7. Ballads
- A few romances of chivalry written in the Langue d'Oc may also be mentioned :-

Girard de Roussillon (beginning of the twelfth century); Jaufre et Brunissende (1213); Ferabras (1230? 1240?).

Finally, amongst the principal monuments of Provençal literature, we must not forget to name: -

A Chronicle (metrical) of the Crusade against the Albigenses (1210); a translation of the De Consolatione of Boetius, and a series of religious poems composed by the Vaudois.

The intellectual glory of Langue d'Oc perished in the thirteenth century with the political independence of Southern France. The Crusade against the Albigenses (1209-29) was its coup de grace.

II. LANGUE D'OIL.

- ROMANCES OF CHIVALRY.—Religious enthusiasm, martial prowess, and, at a later period, love, are the three elements which predominate in these compositions.
  - The first French romance in point of antiquity is the chanson de Roland (eleventh century), erroneously supposed by some to be the work of a Trouvère called Théroulde or Thurold.
    - The chansons de geste (gesta), representing more particularly the principles of war and religion, include:—
      - (a) Subjects belonging to national history, written generally in monorhyme stanzas of decasyllabic or Alexandrine verses. Chief cycles of poems:—
        - 1. Geste du Roi.
        - 2. Geste de Doon de Mayence.
        - 3. Geste de Guillaume au Cort-nez.
      - (b) General subjects of an historical character, often borrowed from ancient history or from the Apocrypha. Principal works:—
        - 1. Le chevalier au cygne.
        - 2. Les quatre fils Aymon.
        - 3 Amis et Amile.
        - 4. Le chanson d'Antioche (was recast by Graindor de Douai).
        - 5. Le roman d'Alexandre (by Lambert le Cort and Alexandre de Bernay).
    - Romances of the Round Table.—Celtic themes treated by Norman Trouvères. The subject of these poems is the creation of an order of chivalry instituted by King Arthur for the purpose of recovering the Saint Graal, or cup with which our Lord celebrated the Last Supper. This cycle includes works written in Octosyllabic verses, thus :-

- 1. Le roman de la charrette.
- 2. Perceval le Gallois.
- 3. Eric et Enide.
- 4. Le chevalier au lion.

Prose, thus :-

- 1. Le roman du Saint Graal.
- 2. La quête du Saint Graal.
- 3. Tristan de Leonnois.
- 4. Lancelot du Lac.
- II. RHYMED CHRONICLES, AND CHRONICLES IN PROSE:-

Le roman de Rou, Le roman de Brut, both by Robert Wace.

La conquête de Constantinople, by Villehardoin.

Histoire de Saint Loys, by the Sire de Joinville.

Chronicles of Jehan Froissart,

- III. FABLIAUX.—We include under this designation a number of didactic or satirical poems, which can be divided and classified according to the subjects treated.
  - 1. Lais. Generally referring to some old Celtic narrative, Marie de France.
  - Dits. Poems written in various metres, and enumerating the various qualities of the subjects or characters introduced. Thus, the Dits du Gardecors and du Pelican, by Bandoin de Condé.
  - Fabliaux, properly so called, satirical poems in octosyllabic lines, rhyming by couplets and directed against:—
    - (a) The secular clergy. Thus, Le provoire qui menga les mures.
    - (b) The monks. Thus, Coquaigne, L'ordre de bel eyse.
    - (c) The knights and barons. Thus, Le chevalier au barizel, Le vair palefroi.
    - (d) The bourgeoisie. Thus, La bourse pleine de sens.
    - (e) The serfs. Thus, Le vilain mire.
  - 4. Débats and disputes ; rhymed dialogues. La desputoison du vin et de l'iaue.
  - Moral and religious poems. Le castoiement d'un père à son fils; the Bibles of Guiot de Provins and of the Seigneur de Berze; the poem on Sainte Léocade, by Gautier de Coinsi; the poems of Rutebeuf.
  - 6. Didactic poems, Cyclonadias. L'image du monde.
  - 7. Satirical and allegorical poems :-
    - (a) Le roman de Renart (Renart le nouvel, Renart le contrefuit, Couronnement de Renart, etc.).
    - (b) Le roman de la Rose, begun by Guillaume de Lorris, and continued by Jehan de Meung.
  - Historical poems are merely rhymed gazettes. Thus, La complainte et le jeu de Pierre de la Broce.
  - Songs. The principal chansonniers are Adam de la Halle, and Thibaut, count o Champagne.
- IV. SERMON WRITERS :-

Saint Bernard of Clairvaux.

V. ORIGINS OF THE FRENCH STAGE:-

Mysteries, Miracle-plays, Moralities.—Jehan Bodel (Jeu de Saint Nicolas) Adam de la Halle (Jeu de a feuillée).

II. A FEW WRITERS ARE CONSPICUOUS FOR GENIUS AND VIGOUR :-

The Duc de la Rochefoucauld-Maximes, Mémoires.

Madame de Sévigné—Letters.

Madame de La Fayette—Za'lde. The Princesse de Clèves marked a revolution in novel writing. Pierre Corneille composes his last tragedies—Rodogune, Héraclius, Don Sanche d'Aragon, Nicomède, Agésilas, &c.

Molière writes with much liberty in spite of the absolutism of Louis XIV. His chief productions are—Le Turtule, Le Misanthrope, Les Femmes Savantes, L'Avare, L'École des Maris, Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme, Les Fourberies de Scapin.

Mézeray-Histoire de France.

III. THE MAJORITY ARE SPECIALLY REMARKABLE FOR REGULARITY, HARMONY, AND TASTE :-

Boileau Despréaux—Epitres, Satires, L'Art Poétique, Le Lutrin. Quinault—Atys, Armide, Roland (operas).

Flechier-Oraisons funebres.

Bourdalone-Sermons.

Bossuet-Sermons, Oraisons funèbres, Discours sur l'Histoire universelle, Histoire des Variations.

Malebranche-La Recherche de la Verité.

La Bruyère-Les Caractères et Mœurs de ce Siècle.

Racine, pre-eminently happy in delineating the passions of the human heart. Chief works-La Thébaide, Alexandre, Andromaque, Bérênice, Bajazet, Mithridate, Britannicus, Iphigénie, Phèdre, Athalie, Esther, Les Plaideurs.

IV. TRANSITION TO THE FOLLOWING EPOCH. Liberal Ideas begin to manifest themselves:-

Regnard-Comedies : Le Joueur, Le Légataire universel.

Le Sage-Turcaret, Gil Blas, Le Diable boiteux.

Fénelon—Télémaque, Fables, Tales, Correspondence, &c. Massillon—Le Petit Carême, Oraisons funébres.

Saint Simon-His Memoirs are the most striking condemnation of the despotism of Louis XIV.

I. A feeble Continuation :-

COMEDY-

The School of Molière. - D'Allainval (L'École des Bourgeois).

Authors who endeavoured to move the feelings rather than to interest the mind.—Destouches (Le Glorieux), La Chaussée, Diderot, Beaumarchais (Le Barbier de Séville—Le Mariage de Figero).

Analytical School. - Marivaux (Le Legs-Les Jeux de l'Amour et du Hasard).

TRAGEDY.-Voltaire, Crébillon, La Motte (Inès de Castro), La Noue (Mahomet II.).

PCLPIT ELOQUENCE.-L'Abbé Poulle, L'Abbé de Boismont, Duguet.

Lyric Poetry.-J. B. Rousseau (Odes, Cantates, &c.), Le Franc de Pompignan.

II. A Development:-

POETRY OF NATURE.—Saint Lambert (Les Saisons), Lemierre (Les Fastes), Roucher (Le Mois), Delille.

DIDACTIC POETRY.—Louis Racine (La Religion—La Grâce), Lemierre (La Peinture), Marmontel, Voltaire, Fontanes.

Tales and Novels.—L'Abbé Prévost (Manon Lescaut), Marivaux, Diderot, Rousseau, Marmontel, Voltaire, Bernardin de St. Pierre.

LIGHT POETRY, FABLES, ETC.-Voltaire, Piron, Gresset (Ver-Vert), Florian, La Motte.

Forensic Eloquence. -D'Aguesseau (Mercuriales), Gerbier, Servan, La Chalotais.

III. A Reaction against:-

ANTIQUITY. - La Motte (Paradoxes Littéraires), Fontenelle.

RELIGION-

With which is associated a system of philosophy :-

Applied to Ontological Facts. - Condillac.

Applied to the Study of Nature. - Buffon, Réaumur, the Jussieu family, B. de St. Pierre.

For which is substituted :-

Deism.-Voltaire, Rousseau, Duclos, Vauvenargues.

Atheism.—Helvétius, Diderot, D'Holbach, Lamettrie, Lalande, Condorcet.

Social Institutions. - Historical Studies are assiduously cultivated :-

Erudition properly so called .- Calmet, Fréret, Ducange, the Daciers, the Benedictines.

Erudition applied to History.—Daniel (Histoire de France), Dubos (Histoire de l'Établissement de la Monarchie).

Philosophy applied to History.—Hénault, Montesquieu (Grandeur et Décadence des Romains), Raynal, Mably.

Descriptive History. - Vertot, Rollin, Voltaire (Hist, de Charles XII.), Rulhière, Memoirs.-Madame de Staal, Madame de Caylus, Beaumarchais.

Political Science.—Montesquieu (Lettres Persanes — Esprit des Lois), Terrasson (Sethos), Quesnay, Voltaire, L'Abbé de St. Pierre.

LITERARY CRITICISM, ÆSTHETICS, ACADEMIC ELOQUENCE.—Grimm (Correspondance), La Harpe (Lycée), Fontenelle, Thomas (Eloges), D'Alembert, Diderot, Rollin, Montesquieu (Essat sur le Golt), Dubos, Morellet.

REIGN OF PUBLIC OPINION :-

Salons.—Madame du Deffand, Madame Geoffrin, Madame Necker, Mademoiselle de L'Espinasse, Madame de Lambert (Avis d'une Mère à son Fils), Baron d'Holbach (Système

Newspaper Literature. - Fréron, Desfontaines (L'Année Littérwire - Le Mercure de France).

The ENCYCLOPEDIE, of which D'Alembert and Diderot were the chief editors, may be considered as the great literary manifesto of the eighteenth century in France.

Battle of Rivoli. - Treaty of Tolentino,-Coup d'État of Fructidor. - Treaty of Campo Formio. — General Hoche, d.

- Battle of Aboukir. -Malthus publishes his work on population.

The era of theories which had prepared the way for reforms of every kind ends with the taking of the Bastille; and to discussions of a merely intellectual character must now succeed political action. The influence of thought makes itself felt through fresh channels; and whilst newspaper literature acquires a power of the most extraordinary kind, the debates of the Assembles Constituante. the Assemblee Legislative, and the Convention give occasion to flights of eloquence which Demosthenes

- 1. Orators who represented more particularly the doctrines of Montesquieu and Voltaire: -Mounier, Malouet, Lally-Tollendal, Condorcet.
- 2. Orators chiefly identified with the theories of the Contrat Social :-Adrien Duport, Lameth, Sieyès, Barnave, Vergniaud, Guadet, Gensonné.
- 3. The "Ancien Régime" has its orators in Maury and Cazalès.
- 4. Extreme revolutionists :- Robespierre, Marat.

Mirabeau standing apart like the genius of modern French eloquence.

JOURNALISTS.—The inexperience of these extemporized politicians was equal to their audacity.

- 1. On the Revolutionary side : Camille Desmoulins (Révolutions de France et de Brabant Vieux Cordelier), Loustalot (Révolutions de Paris), Marat (L'Ami du Peuple).
- 2. On the Royalist side :- Rivarol, Montlosier, Mallet du Pan (Les Actes des Apôtres-La

PAMPHLET-WRITERS.—Sieyès (Qu'est-ce que le Tiers État?), Mirabeau (Essai sur le Despotisme), Necker (Compte-rendu au Roi), Benjamin Constant (De la Force du Gouvernement actuel, et de la Nécessité de s'y rallier).

Madame Roland, - Mémoires, Correspondance.

- DRAMATIC LITERATURE. Fabre d'Eglautine (Le Philinte de Molière), Collin d'Harleville (L'Optimiste, le Vieux Célibataire), Chamfort (La jeune Indienne, Mustapha et Zéangir), Andrieux (Les Étourdis).
  - Tragedies and comedies are very little else but dramatic pamphlets. Thus :-Marie Joseph Chenier (Charles IX., Henri VIII., Fénelon). And on the Royalist side :-Laya (L' Ami des Lois).
- Lyric and Descriptive Poetry.—André Chénier, Roucher.—Marie Joseph Chénier is essentially the poet of the Revolution.—Andrieux, Écouchard Le Brun, Rouget de l'Isle (La Marseillaise).—Delille (La Pitié) represents Royalism in poetry.
- PHILOSOPHY.—The doctrines of the Condillac School became the substratum of all official teaching throughout the French Republic; and it is from the sensationalist point of view that the "Ecoles Normales" were founded.
  - Principal writers on metaphysics and science in general :- Garat, Volney (Les Ruines, Catéchisme de la Loi naturelle), Condorcet (Esquisse d'un Tableau historique des Progrès de l'Esprit humain), Berthollet, Haüy, Cabanis.
  - A strong reaction soon takes place against the tenets of the Revolutionists :-
    - (a) From the mystical or religious point of view :- St. Martin, le philosophe inconnu (Des Erreurs et de la Vérité), Joseph de Maistre (Considérations sur la France).
    - (b) From the political point of view: Necker (Histoire de la Révolution), Mounier (Recherches sur les Causes qui ont empéché les Français de deventr libres), Mallet du Pan (Considérations sur la Révolution française), Morellet.

Napoleon Bonaparte. - Speeches and proclamations to his troops.

TABLE VIII.

THE CONSULATE AND THE EMPIRE.

SYNCHRONISMS.

1799. Storming of Seringapatam. 1805. Battles of Trafalgar and of -Coup d'Etat of Brumaire. -The Consulate.

1800. Battles of Marengo, Montebello, Hohenlinden. - Attempt upon the life of the First Consul.-Mallet du 1806. Pan, d.-Bichat publishes his Recherches physiologiques our la Vie et la Mort.

Siege of Saragossa. - Battles of Talavera and of Wagram. 1815. -Châteaubriand publishes Les Marturs.

duchess Maria - Louisa --

Battles of Busaco and of Torres Vedras. - Bernadotte adopted by Charles XIII., king of Sweden, as heir to the throne.

1811. Battle of Albuera. — Increased despotism of Napoleon.

Successes of Wellington in Spain.-Campaign of Russia. The Pope transferred to Fontainebleau.-Conspiracy of General Mallet. Tilsit.—Sismondi publishes 1813. European coalition against Napoleon. - Battles of Lutzen, Bautzen, Leipsic, &c. -Publication of Madame de Staël's De l'Allemagne.

Invasion of France by the Allies.—Paris capitulates.— Louis XVIII. ascends the throne.

The hundred days. - Battle of Waterloo, -Napoleon abdicates.-First Edition of Béranger's songs.

Despotism and real literature are incompatible. The reign of military force inaugurated on the 18th Brunaire put an end to all utterance of thought; and a censorship of the strictest character kept the press in complete check.

PHILOSOPHY:-

- (a) Strict continuation of the School of Condillac :- Destutt de Tracy.
- (b) Modified :- De Gérando-La Romiguière.
- (c) Revival of idealism :-
  - 1. From the point of view of German thought :- Charles Villers-Fr. Ancillon.
  - 2. From the point of view of the Scotch School (Reid, Dugald-Stewart) :- Royer Collard.
  - 3. From an independent point of view :- Benjamin Constant-Maine de Biran.
  - In connection with a religious revival:—De Bonald (Législation Primitive), Joseph de Maistre (Soirées de St. Pétersbourg), Abbé Frayssinous (Conférences).

The Société d'Auteuil, consisting of sensationalist philosophers who met at the house of Madame Helvétius—Dannou, Ginguene, Destutt de Tracy, &c.—is the great centre of constitutional opposition to Bonaparte.

- Writers on Scientific Subjects:—Georges Cuvier (Recherches sur les Ossements fossiles), Geoffroy St. Hilaire, Fourcroy, La Place (Exposition du Système du Monde), Lacépède (Histoire naturelle des Quadrupèdes oripares et des Serpents).
- Legislation and Administration:—Merlin (Répertoire universel de Jurisprudence), Portalis (Discours et Rapports), Roederer (Journal d'Économie politique), Regnault de St. Jean d'Angely.
- History: --Darn (Histoire de Venise), Michand (Histoire des Croisades), Lacretelle (Histoire de France au XVIII. Siècle), Sismondi (Histoire de France), Cardinal de Bausset (Histoire de Fosuet).
- Criticism and Erudition: Ginguene, Auger, Malte-Brun, Daunou, Dussault, Hoffmann, De Féletz, Geoffroy, Boissonade.

During the Empire the periodical press was kept under the severest control.

- Le Publiciste (Mademoiselle de Meulan, Suard).
- Le Mercure de France (La Harpe, Fontanes, De Bonald).
- Le Journal des Débats (Bertin de Vaux).

POETRY.—Ceasing to be an inspiration, it becomes a trade ("on travaille des vers comme une broderie").

- 1. Didactic and descriptive poetry reigns supreme :-
  - Delille (Les Jardins), Fontanes (Le Verger), Castel (Les Plantes), Berchoux (La Gastronomie), Esménard (La Navigation).
- 2. Epic poetry sinks into insignificance:-
  - Parseval-Grandmaison (Philippe-Auguste), Baour-Lormian (L'Atlantide).
- The Drama:—Tragedy. As genius is altogether absent, the vices of the pseudo-classical system are all the more conspicuous.
  - Raynouard (Les Templiers), De Jouy (Sylla), La Harpe (Philoctète), Briffaut (Ninus II.), Baour-Lormian (Omasis), M. J. Chenier (Tibère), Arnault (Marius à Minturnes), Lemercier (Agamemnon).

Ducis, divided between the inspiration of his genius and the influence of the age in which he lived, satisfied neither the one nor the other (Hamlet, Le Roi Lear, Othello, Abufar).

Letourneur's translation of Shakespeare proves that an epoch of reform is dawning for French tragedy.

- Comedy.—The delineation of social foibles and ridicules is still successful.—Etienne (Les Deux Gendres), Alexandre Duval (Le Tyran domestique—La Fille d'Honneur), Picard (Médiocre et Rampant—La Petite Ville), Lemercier (Pinto).
- 5. Lyric poetry :-

Millevoye, Madame Dufrénoy (Élégies), Lebrun (Odes, Élégies, Épîtres).

NOVELS AND TALES :-

Fiévée (La Dot de Suzette), Madame Cottin (Malek-Adhel, Mulvina, etc.), Madame de Souza (Adèle de Sénanges), Madame de Krüdner (Valèrie).

The standard of reform in literature, philosophy, and politics is raised, on the Royalist side by Châteaubriand (Atala, René, Le Génie du Christianisme, Les Martyrs); on the Liberal side by Mme. De Staël (Delphine, Corinne, De l'Allemagne, Considérations sur la Révolution française).

	The state of the s

This epoch is essentially one of transition. A general feeling prevails that social, political, and religious institutions must, as well as literature, be thoroughly modified.

- PHILOSOPHY.—Materialism undergoes a complete transformation. Broussais (De l'Irritation et de la Folie) adheres strictly to the old traditions; but a union is attempted between philosophy and sociology.—MM. St. Simon, Fourier, Auguste Comte (Positivism: MM. Littré, Taine, etc.), Jean Reynaud, Pierre Leroux.
- IDEALISM is associated with the revival of religious opinions :-
  - (a) Protestantism: -Cellérier, Al. Vinet, Ath. Coquerel, Sam. Vincent, Ad. Monod.
  - (b) Catholicism :- Baron d'Eckstein, Droz, Ballanche.

The Abbé de Lamennais begins :-

- (1) By exalting the power of the Church (Essai sur l'Indifférence).—Chief Disciples:
  Laurentie, De Genonde.
- (2) He attempts to reconcile the Church with the Revolution. Ecole de la Chemaie: Lacordaire, Ozanam, Gerbet, Besson, Maurice de Guérin, Bautain (Paroles d'un Croyant), etc.
- (3) He advocates the downfall of the Church (Affaires de Rome, Le Livre du Peuple).
- (c) affects the form of eclecticism, and assumes a position independent of Christianity, but not hostile to it—Victor Cousin. The school is soon broken up.]
- (d) Deists:-MM. Jules Simon, Garnier, Jouffroy, Damiron, Caro.
- (e) Scientific Freethinkers :- MM. Havet, Renan, Vacherot.
  - Eclecticism gives a great impulse to historical researches.—MM. Matter (Histoire du Gnosticisme), Barthélémy St.-Hilaire, Bartholmess, De Rémusat (Abélard, Anselme de Cantorbéry), Ravaisson, Saisset, etc. M. Franck edits the Dictionnaire des Sciences philosophiques.
- Oriental Studies:—MM. Champollion, Sylvestre de Sacy, Etienne Quatremère, Stanislas Julien, Eugène Burnouf, De Chézy, Abel Rémusat, Jules Oppert, Pauthier, Munk, De Rougé.
- Classical Evudition:—MM. Letronne, Thurot, Quicherat, Egger, Naudet, Leelerc, Patin, Charpentier, Raoul Rochette, Boissonade, etc.
- Writers on Science:—MM. Flourens, Biot, Arago, Claude Bernard, Ampère, Poinsot, Alibert, Milne-Edwards, Thénard, Dumas, etc.
- POLITICS, LEGISLATION, ADMINISTRATION.—Pamphlets on the Royalist side: MM. de Châteaubriand (De Bonaparte et des Bourbons, La Monarchie selon la Charte); De Montlosier (Mémoire à consulter). A little later on the Liberal side: Paul Louis Courier (Pamphlet des Pamphlets). Later still: M. de Cormenin, M. Génin, M. Michelet (Des Jésuites), M. de Girardin.
- ELOQUENCE,—Royalists:—MM. de Châteaubriand, Royer-Collard, Berryer, De Villèle, De Martiguac, De Montalembert.
  - Liberal Royalists:-MM. Camille Jordan, De Serre, Guizot, Thiers, Cousin, Dupin, the Duke de Broglie.
  - Republicans and Liberals : General Foy, MM. Manuel, Odilon-Barrot, De Lamartine.
- WRITERS ON POLITICAL ECONOMY, ETC.:—MM, Say, Michel Chevaller, De Tocqueville, Passy, Baudrillart, Louis Reybaud, Laboulaye.
- Newspapers and Reviews:—The Revue Française, published during the early period of the Restoration, is the organ of the Doctrinaires (MM. Gnizot, De Broglie, Duvergier de Hauranne).
  - The Globe represents the Liberal party with socialist tendencies (MM. Dubois, Pierre Leroux, Sainte-Beuve).
  - The Revue des deux Mondes is established in 1829, and soon takes the lead.

Daily Papers :-

Le Constitutionnel, Liberal, Voltairean, and slightly Bonapartist.

Le Stècle, Liberal.

Le Journal des Débats, Conservative.

Le National, Republican (M. Armand Carrel).

- LATERARY CRITICISM is particularly brilliant during this epoch. M. Villemain lectures at the Sorbonne on the history of French literature. M. Nisard (Histoire de la Littérature française); M. St. Marc Girardin (Cours de Littérature dramatique); M. Sainte-Beuve (Critiques et Portraits littératures, Causeries du Lundi); M.M. de Sacy, Jules Janin, Ampère, Prévost-Paradol, Jaine.
- PRINCIPAL SALONS:—Royalist and Catholic: Madame Swetchine, Madame de Duras. Protestant and Liberal: The Duchess de Broglie. Neutral: Madame Récamier.
- FOETRY AND THE DRAMA.—Under the twofold influence of M. de Châteaubriand and Madame de Staël's teaching, supplemented by a more accurate knowledge of foreign literature, La jeune France seeks to break down for ever the barriers of the so-called tassical school.
  - Ecole Romantique, -- "La Muse Française," -- Leaders of the Movement: MM. Emile Deschamps, De Lamartine, Victor Hugo.
    - (a) Religious Group: MM. Turquety (Amour et Foi): Reboul, Sainte-Benve (Consolations, Pensées d'Août); Guttinguer (Mélanges Poétiques); Duclésieux, Madamo Tastu.
    - (b) Independent Group: MM. Alfred de Musset (Contes d'Espagne et d'Italie), Barbier (Iambes), Théophile Gautier, Barthélémy et Méry (La Némésis, Napoléon en Egypte), Alfred de Vigny (Poèmes Antiques et Modernes), Hégisippe Moreau, Brizeux (Marie, Les Bretons); Mesdames Emile de Girardin (Napoline) and Desbordes Valmore.
  - École Classique.—A few writers remain faithful to the old traditions: MM. Viennet, Alexandre Guiraud (Les Maccabées), Pierre Lebrun (Poésies sur la Grèce). MM. Béranger and Désaugiers raise the French chanson to the proportions of an ode. The former represents the political, and the latter the epicurean side of French lyric poetry. MM. Casimir Delavigne (Les Messéniennes) and Alexandre Soumet form the transition between the Classiques and the Romantiques.
- THE DRAMA is an attempt to introduce into France the style of Shakespeare, and also to place before the public, in a striking manner, extravagant and often dangerous ideas on social and political reform.
  - Artistic Drama:—MM. Victor Hugo (Hernani, Lucrèce Borpia, etc.). Alexandre Dunnas (Henri III. et sa Cour, Charles VII., Caligula, etc.), Alfred de Vigny (La Maréchale d'Ancre).
  - Philosophic Drama:—MM. Alexandra Dumas (Antony, Angèle), Alfred de Vigny (Chatterton), Balzac (Mercadet, Les Ressources de Quinola, Vautrin).
    - Casimir Delavigne (Les Enfants d'Édouard, Louis XI., Marino Faliero) and Alexandre Soumet (Jeanne d'Arc, Norma, Une Fête de Néron) stand apart.
    - Comedy:—M. Scribe and his numerous collaborateurs give us slight and amusing sketches of society (L'Intérieur d'un Bureau, Le Secrétaire et le Cuisimier, Bertrand et Raton, La Camaraderie); MM. Alfred de Musset (Comédies et Proverbes) and Théodore Leclere (Proverbes).
    - A reaction sets in about the year 1840, represented chiefly in tragedy by M. Ponsard (Lucrèce, Agnès de Méranie, Charlotte Corday), and in comedy by MM. Emile Augier (La Ciquë, L'Aventurière, Philiberte) and Jules Sandeau (Le Gendre de Monsieur Poirier, Mademoiselle de la Seighière). The admirable talent of Mademoiselle Rachel helps considerably this return to classical traditions.
